

We would like to make a comment re: the added expenses on our cellular bill. We agree that these costs are too high especially the recovery charge. This should be a low across the board cost for each server and there should be a cap on the amount. Thank You